FYI : The "Vieux-Port" and most central hotels are located in the city center, within 20 mn walking distance / 10 mn by subway from St-Charles train station. We can provide you with a list of hotels upon request.

From the International Marseille-Provence Airport

<https://www.marseille.aeroport.fr/parkings-et-acces/acces/en-train-ou-en-bus>

Every 10 minutes from 7:00 a.m. to 8:00 p.m. Every 20 minutes then until 1:40 am (last departure)
It takes usually 30/45 minutes and costs 10€ to reach the railway station (16€ A/R). You can buy your bus ticket online by credit card, at ticket offices and from the coach driver if ticket office are closed.

At the airport you will also find many Taxis (official cabs of Marseille Provence Airport = <https://www.taxis-aeroport.com/en/>) and Car Rental companies to bring you to Marseille center.

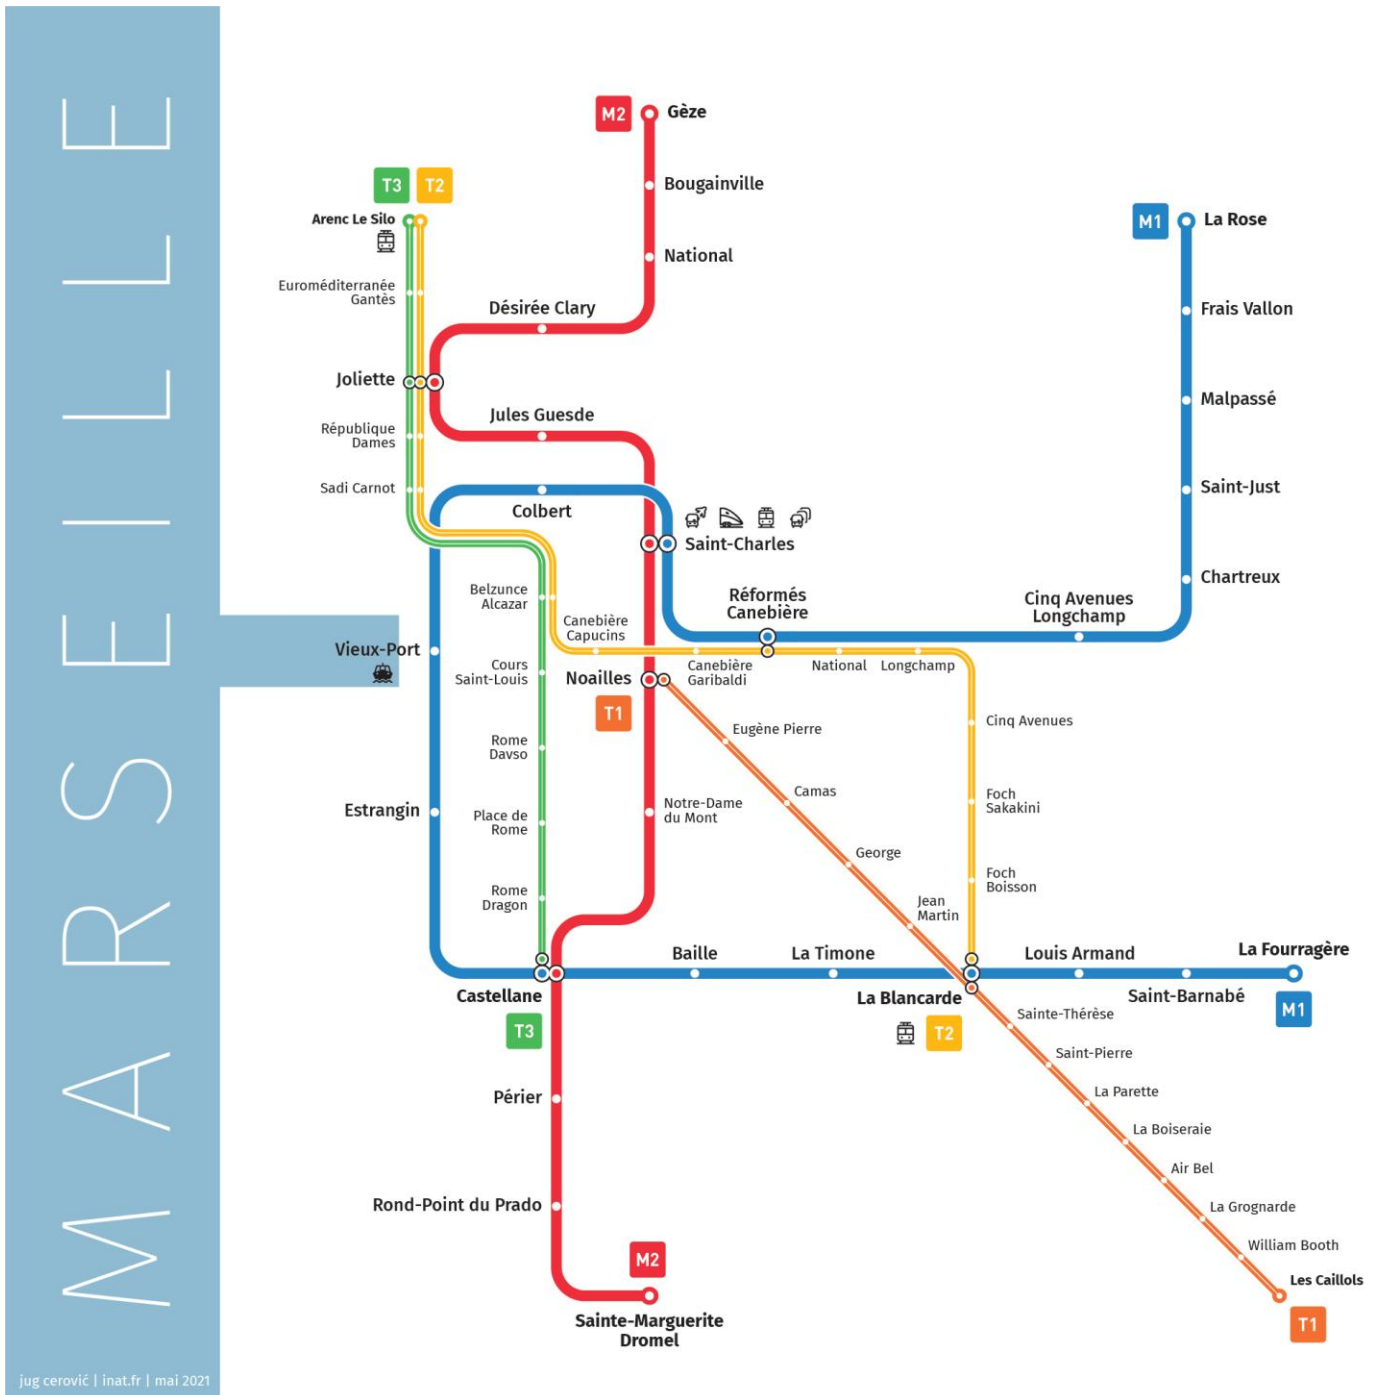

Then From the city center

You can use buses, tramways and subways from the public transport company called "RTM". From the company website <https://www.rtm.fr/> you can download several maps. If you stay several days in Marseille, the best is probably to buy a multitravels card at a subway station.

Getting to the Lab. by public transportation :

Take the Metro Line 1 (blue line on map below)
until «Frais Vallon» station, then take Bus B3 until its stop « Saint Jérôme Faculté » or metro until terminus «La Rose» and then take Bus n°3 until its stop « IUT »
NB : Pedestrian access in front of IUT (Avenue Charles Susini) is open only from 7:45 a.m. to 9:30 a.m

Line bus B3 from Frais Vallon metro station to Campus St Jérôme Marseille
